

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

CITIZEN OF THE YEAR

HON. WILLIAM F. GOODLING

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 19, 1996

Mr. GOODLING. Mr. Speaker, today I am pleased to join the Carlisle Exchange Club in honoring Dr. Webb S. Hersperger as "Citizen of the Year 1995."

I have known Dr. Hersperger for many years and have valued his friendship. While his professional and community service affiliations are extensive, he is most distinguished for his important contributions to the practice of medicine and the medical community. Having served as president of the Cumberland County Medical Society, he was instrumental in the development of the emergency 911 service.

Webb's commitment to public service by no means ends in the hospital. For many years, he served his country in the U.S. Army Medical Corps. He has also worked to preserve the health and welfare of many Pennsylvanians through the American Red Cross, the Salvation Army, the United Way, and the YMCA, just to list a few. Be it through his medical practice, the church, or service with educational and charitable organizations, he has touched the life of each Cumberland County resident in some way.

It has been said that the health of a democratic society is measured by the quality of functions performed by private citizens. Throughout his career Dr. Hersperger has been dedicated to improving and enriching the lives of others. Through his example, he has set this standard and embodied the values of true citizenship which are vital to the well-being of our community and to the future of our Nation.

Mr. Speaker, as the representative of Pennsylvania's 19th Congressional District, I congratulate Dr. Hersperger for receiving this prestigious award. He has made Cumberland County a better place to live and raise a family. I am proud to call him a constituent and a friend.
